This contract is for the spring 2012 semester. It is a revocable license which gives you the right to share an apartment and to have a bedroom in the residence halls operated by the Faculty Student Association of Tompkins Cortland Community College ("FSA"). This license will be in effect so long as you adhere to the terms of this contract and all rules and regulations issued by the FSA with respect to the residence halls as contained in the Residence Life Handbook or otherwise. Please review the Residence Life Handbook at <http://www.tc3.edu/student/housing.asp>.

Break Housing Rates: We will be designating one of the buildings as a break housing building. In this building, rates will be $3,800/semester. Students in break housing will be able to stay for winter break and Spring Break. Additionally, students in this building will be able to stay after closing until the first summer session if needed. This will be the ONLY location open for breaks. If a student will only need to stay for one break in a semester, they should select the break housing building and will only be charged $100. The housing questionnaire will ask for requests for this type of housing.

Security Deposit: A $250 security deposit is required. This deposit is part of the process but does not guarantee a room. It will be refunded if you are not offered a room in on-campus housing. The deposit is refunded within 60 days after the end of the academic year subject to the following:

- a. Room damages beyond normal wear will be charged against the deposit. Damages to common areas will be charged on a pro rata basis against the deposit for all residents of that area. Failure to turn in a room key or apartment door key will result in a reduction in the amount of security deposit that is refunded. Damage costs exceeding the security deposit will result in a bill for the balance, with the student being placed on the "Stop List" until paid in full.
- b. If the residence hall contract is broken for any reason, the security deposit will not be refunded. You may be released from your obligation under this contract only with the written permission of FSA's Director of Residence Life. All requests for release must be submitted on a Contract Release Request Form available from the Office of Residence Life. You must present compelling reasons for the requested release (i.e., marriage, activation for military duty, medical reasons). The decision as to whether to accept any such request shall lie solely at the discretion of the Director of Residence Life.

Meal Plan: Students living in campus housing are required to purchase an 8, 10, or 12 meals per-week semester plan. See www.tc3.edu/student/dining_meal_plan.asp.

RESIDENCE LIFE POLICIES AND CONDITIONS OF OCCUPANCY

1. Students residing in the Residence Halls must be matriculated, enrolled as full-time students, in good judicial standing and be at least 18 years old by December 31, 2011.
2. FSA may revoke your right to reside in the residence hall and take possession of your room if at any time you violate any rules set forth in the Residence Life Handbook (a copy of which you acknowledge reviewing contemporaneous with signing this Contract), or any of the policies and conditions recited in this Contract.
3. FSA is entitled to enter and inspect residence hall rooms at any time in order to protect the health and safety of students therein, and to ensure the proper maintenance and sanitation of such rooms. FSA shall endeavor (but not be required) to post notice of any general room inspection at least twenty-four (24) hours beforehand. In addition, FSA is entitled to enter and conduct an unannounced inspection of any residence hall room if it has cause to reasonably believe that illegal activity is or may be occurring in such room or that any of the policies or conditions of occupancy either in this Contract or contained in the Residence Life Handbook is or may be occurring therein.
4. No alcohol or unprescribed drugs or drug paraphernalia will be permitted anywhere in the residence halls or on residence life property.
5. Possession of weapons and/or physical violence are grounds for immediate dismissal from the residence halls.
6. Students are responsible for the daily care and cleaning of their rooms and apartments. Failure to keep common areas in the apartment clean may result in all occupants of an apartment being charged for the cleaning of these areas. All apartments will be checked at each break closing and any that pose a potential health hazard or are not cleaned so that a new occupant could move in will be cleaned and all current residents will be charged for the cleaning and may be charged judicially.

7. Students residing in a room are jointly and individually responsible for the furniture and condition of the room. Students will be charged for damages as they occur during the academic year and will be expected to promptly and fully pay for any and all such damages. Students who fail to respond to notices of fire safety violations will be fined for those violations.
8. FSA shall not be liable, directly or indirectly, for loss of or damage to any article of personal property or vehicle anywhere on the premises caused by fire, water, steam, the elements, insufficient heat, loss or surges of electricity, the actions of third persons, or any other acts of nature resulting in the interruption of service or damage to personal belongings. Additionally, students who cause damage in the residence halls including major structural damage, even accidentally, should expect to be held financially accountable. Students are responsible for insuring their own property by purchasing renters insurance or assuring coverage on their parents' homeowners insurance.
9. No animals or pets are permitted in the residence halls with the exception of service/guide dogs.
10. All room changes must have the prior approval of the Director of Residence Life. As all room changes require turnover cleaning, there will be a $40 fee on students' accounts anytime they change rooms.
11. There should be no more than 10 people in an apartment at one time due to fire safety issues.
12. The FSA reserves the right to re-assign students where it is determined to be in the best interest of the resident population.
13. Students may not take a roommate; assign, subcontract, lease, or otherwise transfer their interest under this contract; or permit anyone not duly assigned or approved by the Director of Residence Life to share any part of the room or apartment.
14. Residence Halls are closed during Spring Break. Students must plan to leave the Residence Halls during these periods (specific dates to be set by the college calendar) unless they have selected the Break Housing option.
15. If student is younger than 21 years of age at the time this contract is signed, student authorizes FSA to communicate with student's parent(s) and/or guardian(s) at any time, regardless of whether student's 21st birthday occurs during the license term.

Abandoned Property Policy: Any personal property that remains in a room upon termination of the license shall be deemed abandoned and may be disposed of by FSA in its sole discretion. FSA may, in its discretion, make efforts to notify student and/or student's parent or guardian that property has been found in room. Neither the FSA, the Foundation, TC3, or their agents or contractors assume any responsibility for any such property at any time, regardless of any course of action taken.

Enforcement Procedure: The Director of Residence Life and staff are delegated the responsibility to take the actions necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the residents. Responsibility for interpretations of the residence hall rules, as well as their enforcement, is solely that of the Director of Residence Life.

It is understood and agreed that the student accepts and agrees to the rules of the Residence Hall Contract herein and also he/she is responsible for adherence to all other policies specified in the Residence Hall Contract and the Residence Life Handbook. Signing below acknowledges this and indicates that the signees have reviewed the on-line Residence Life Handbook at <http://www.tc3.edu/student/housing.asp>. It is also understood that information regarding policy violations can and will be shared with a student's parent and/or guardian. Students will receive a copy of the handbook upon check-in. The FSA will provide a room to the student for the spring 2012 semester in the residence halls operated by the FSA, subject to these terms, and subject to the general rules and regulations of the College with respect to its students, as the same in FSA's discretion may be amended from time-to-time. A student who fails to observe any of the terms and conditions of this contract, will forfeit his/her right to reside in the residence hall and also may be subject to disciplinary action according to the rules and regulations of the College.
